The Saturday Club, a delightfully quaint Tudor-style cottage modeled after William Shakespeare's home in England, was built in 1898 to accommodate the various activities of The Saturday Club, a women's organization established in 1886. The building was placed on the National Register of Historic Sites in 1978. Nestled within Philadelphia's Main Line, a unique community of elegant stone mansions, historic churches, and quaint railroad stations, we are located conveniently near Route 476 via the Pennsylvania Turnpike, Route 76, and Interstate 95, and one block south of Route 30 and Wayne Avenue in Wayne, Pennsylvania.
