CHESTER COUNTY NAMED SEMIFINALIST IN HARVARD'S 2017 INNOVATIONS IN AMERICAN GOVERNMENT AWARDS COMPETITION

The Ash Center for Democratic Governance and Innovation at the John F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University, recognized the Chester County Women's Reentry Assessment and Programming (WRAP) initiative as a Semifinalist in this year's Innovations in American Government Awards competition. The WRAP initiative will compete for a chance at the $100,000 grand prize in Cambridge this spring.

Chester County's WRAP initiative was launched to meet the needs of women who have been incarcerated, struggling for basic survival, or lacking in skills to transition back into family life. Because of WRAP, arrest rates for women for new criminal charges have decreased by 61 percent, and technical violations of community supervision have decreased by 72 percent.

THE SATURDAY CLUB SHUFFLE 5K AND KIDS RACE

April 1

The Saturday Club Shuffle 5K and Kids Race is a fundraising event for The Saturday Club, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization of volunteer women. The Saturday Club serves and supports causes that aid and benefit women, children and families in the Greater Philadelphia region. A half-mile kids race will kick off the morning followed by the 5K. The course runs through downtown Wayne, starting and ending at The Saturday Club, 117 W. Wayne Avenue. After the race, refreshments and family-friendly activities will be available for all participants, including those who come to cheer on the racers. All kids race participants will receive their own t-shirt and ribbon. Age group and overall awards will be given for the 5K. For more information or to sign up, go to www.saturdayclubshuffle.org.
